

Admission for International MBA Program

Program Introduction

Lingnan International MBA program was launched and jointly developed with MIT Sloan School of Management since 1999. All courses are instructed in English and MIT Sloan MBA curriculum and teaching methods are adopted in the program. International MBA has both Full-time (2 years) and Part-time (3 years) options. International MBA students will be awarded the Master of Business Administration degree of Sun Yat-sen University and MIT certificate upon graduation after they finish required courses and successfully pass the thesis defense.

Lingnan MBA program believes in "Education for Service" and our mission is to "develop international business leaders for tomorrow". We are committed to providing rich international learning experience to our MBA students. In addition to the curriculum, students are encouraged to participate in wide range of activities beyond class to develop their leadership, courage and character to take the challenges of 21st century. And these activities include the exciting Orientation week, Lingnan MBA business plan competition, Dairy Farm Seminars, international competition, oversee internships, international exchange study, field trips and etc.
